

Rose Liddy, CARE Experience Lead Ambassador at CARE
(CARE is a division of Constant Aviation)

Description of my career at CARE: "I joined CARE as a Sales and Sourcing Specialist. From the moment I walked through the doors I immediately felt the family-oriented culture. The atmosphere is very inviting and it encourages you to do your very best and be an active part of something that makes you feel so welcomed. At a young age I realized that I was a very competitive person (in a good way)! As I entered the work force, I channeled my competitiveness as a challenge to do my very best to help people through sales and service. I have made it my number one priority in my role here at CARE, to provide solutions to customers that make them happy! They are expecting and will acquire a level of service unlike any other. One that is very heartfelt and leaves a long lasting impression. It is our responsibility to make sure they receive that consistently. It is rare and unique to be in a position that really makes you happy every single day, I have that here. I have everything I need all in one place, it's just like home!"

My advice: "Do not ever turn down the opportunity to learn! Gain all the knowledge that you can anytime someone wants to teach you or you get a new opportunity to do something great! You never know where it is going to take you! Be open minded and feel empowered to make a difference."
